

What should I already know?

- I can name and locate the eight counties and six cities in England.
- I can name and use the eight points of a compass.
- I can name and locate at least eight European countries.
- I can use maps to locate European countries and capitals.

A Mediterranean country is those that surround the Mediterranean Sea or located within the Mediterranean basin.

Sticky Knowledge

Examples of Countries in the Southern Hemisphere

Africa, Asia, Antarctica, Australia, South America, South Africa.

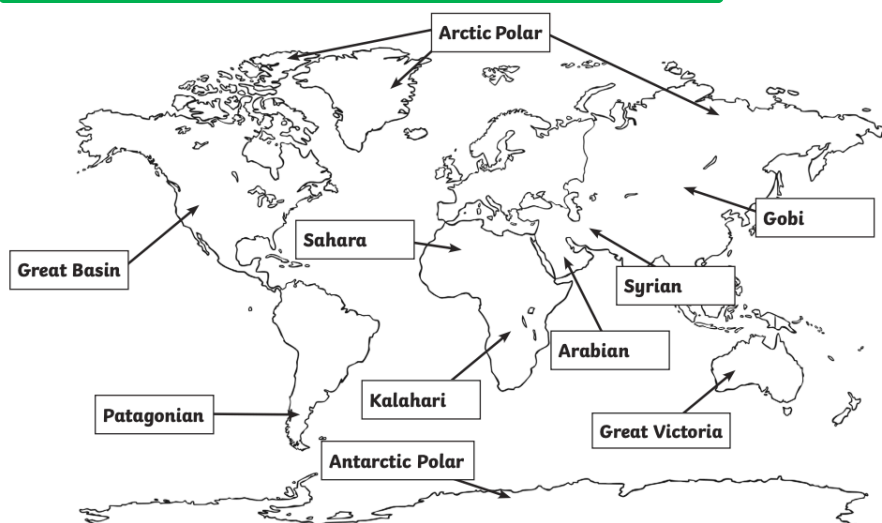

Examples of Countries in the Northern Hemisphere

China, France, Germany, India, Japan, Mexico, Poland, Russia, Spain, United Kingdom, Ukraine and the United States.

The majority of Earth's land mass is in the northern hemisphere and as a result, there are more countries in the northern hemisphere than in the southern hemisphere.

Vocabulary

Southern Hemisphere	The half of the Earth that is south of the Equator. It contains all or parts of five continents and four oceans.
Northern Hemisphere	The half of the Earth that is north of the Equator. 68% of land on Earth is located in the Northern Hemisphere and contains parts of five of the seven continents.
Desert	A place where little rain falls.
Country	A nation with its own government.

World Deserts

Weaving Concepts

